Author Visit – Wicked Women of Detroit

Tobin T. Buhk is a freelance author specializing in historic true crime. To research his first book, Cause of Death, he volunteered in a county morgue. He will be at the Library in the Orchard Room on Friday, November 1 at 6:30PM to tell us all about the Wicked Women of Detroit! Free to attend. Books will be available for purchase and signing.

Fall Lecture Series – Hotspots of the World

The Grace A. Dow Memorial Library will be exploring world conflict in its fall lecture series entitled, "Hotspots of the World," which will focus on some of the world's most troubled areas. Today, our understanding of world affairs comes primarily from the media or social media and often lacks any historical background or context to events contributing to current world crises. The purpose of this lecture series is to deepen our knowledge and broaden our perspectives on some of the critical areas of conflict in the world today. Topics include Syria on November 14 and Venezuela on December 5. All lectures are held in the Library Auditorium at 7:00PM and are free to attend.

Board Game Meet Up

Join us once a month for board game fun! Meet other board game enthusiasts in the Orchard Room on Saturday, November 16 from 12:00PM to 5:00PM. Bring a game or play one of ours.

Book to Movie – November Selection

Motherless Brooklyn

by Jonathan Lethem

For Lionel Essrog, a victim of Tourette's syndrome (an uncontrollable urge to shout out nonsense, touch every surface within reach, and rearrange objects), Frank Minna is a savior. A local tough guy and fixer, Minna takes Lionel and three of his fellow orphans on mysterious errands. The four grow up to be the Minna Men, a fly-by-night detective agency-cum-limo service, and their days and nights revolve around Frank. Then one dreadful night, Frank is knifed and thrown into a dumpster, and Lionel must become a real detective. As Lionel struggles to find Frank's killer—without letting his Tourette's get in the way—he is forced to delve into the complex, shadowy web of relationships, threats, and favors that make up the Brooklyn world.

Did You Know? Library of Things

GADML is developing a Library of Things! What is a Library of Things, you may ask? It is a collection of items not normally associated with a library but have huge check-out appeal. For example, we are now checking out board games and knit & crochet kits. Coming soon for check out will be Memory Kits for reminiscing with loved ones who are experiencing memory issues. Feel free to suggest other items you may be interested in borrowing. We are considering cake pans, household tools, musical instruments and more.
